The TABA Crawfish Boil brought out 100 or so TABA members for a casual get together at Las Casas. We very much appreciate Monteith Abstract & Title, Lone Star Drywall Service and All County Surveying, Inc. for their sponsorship of this event. It provided a great opportunity for our members to network and catch up with each other as we start ramping up for the busy building season. We look forward to seeing you again next year for a similar event. If you have any suggestions as to how TABA could make this type of event an even more valuable networking opportunity, please don't hesitate to email us at troy@tahb.org or cheryl@tahb.org and let us know.

Troy Glasson
Executive Officer

My role as interim executive director is quickly coming to an end. My last day at TABA will be April 30th. Cheryl will remain available to TABA through the month of May and possibly longer if needed. Cheryl and I have been tasked with assisting in a search for an administrative assistant that can be hired as soon as possible.

The Board of Directors has hired Brad Wyrick as Executive Officer and his start date is July 1st. Brad is from Belton, but has worked in Washington, DC for about six years as an analyst for security and defense agencies. Brad graduated from Belton and UMHB prior to moving out of state to pursue his education and career. He and his family are excited to get back to Central Texas. I'm sure you'll be as impressed with him as we are.

During the interview with Brad, our leaders became more than satisfied that his extensive experience working with public officials and contractors in developing policy is well suited for the job he will be taking over at TABA. He has come across as intelligent, prepared and personable. TABA will be excited to introduce him to you when he arrives.

It has been a whirlwind year. I'm glad to say that things are looking up for TABA and our industry. New members are signing-up monthly, our fundraising events have been very successful to start the year, and we are excited about the leader that we are bringing in to keep us moving forward.

It is essential that we continue to grow our membership base. A strong association is vital to the health of our industry. You may not always see it, but the work that TABA does behind the scenes helps to keep home ownership affordable and provides a valuable check and balance when it comes to regulations that impact all of our businesses. What is likely obvious to you is the value the association brings to your business from a networking and marketing stand point. The company I will be taking over has been a member of TABA for years and I already plan to renew our membership as soon as the time comes.

With that said, I'd like to thank Will Sears, Jason Carothers, Mike Pilkington, and all TABA leadership for allowing me another go-around. I thank Cheryl Hunka for her friendship and 16 years of committed service to this association—she will be a lot more difficult to replace than I am. I'd also like to thank our members and the communities that we live and work in for making this a fantastic place to work all these years. I wish the best to all of you, and I plan to keep in touch—Vaya Con Dios!
