

TEMPLE AREA BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

Code of Ethics

As a member of TABA in good standing, you believe in, and accept, the responsibilities and obligations inherent in providing quality building services. Basic to these ethical beliefs, you agree to abide by and support the following objectives:

- MEMBERS shall constantly seek to provide better values so that an ever-greater share of our people may enjoy the benefits of home ownership.
- MEMBERS shall strive to develop the efficiency of the home building industry to the end that labor may receive its just and proper reward.
- MEMBERS shall at all times contribute their knowledge in home building to the best interest of those they serve.
- MEMBERS shall not knowingly enter into any contract, the terms of which are designed to imperil the rights of either labor or the suppliers of materials to receive a fair return for services or goods furnished.
- MEMBERS shall not obtain any business by means of fraudulent statements or by use of implications unwarranted by fact or reasonable probability.
- MEMBERS shall comply both in spirit and letter with rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies for the health, safety and progress of the community.
- MEMBERS shall be alert to examine proposed or enacted State and Local legislation detrimental to social, economic and political progress.
- MEMBERS shall not perform, or cause to be performed, any act which would tend to reflect on, or bring into dispute, any part of the Home Building Industry or this Association.
